THE VIA FRANCIGENA, FROM LUCCA TO ROME SELF-GUIDED

The ancient route that in medieval times connected Canterbury to Rome and to the harbors of Apulia has been discovered by modern pilgrims, who set off on a fantastic route. Anima Toscana offers the opportunity to discover the Via Francigena route in 8 days from Lucca to Rome by bicycle, crossing the regions of Tuscany and Lazio on secondary roads and gravel roads.

During the trip you can visit the UNESCO protected sites of San Gimignano, Siena, and Val d'Orcia, take a break to discover the beautiful villages of Monteriggioni and Bagno Vignoni, cycling surrounded by different landscapes each day, from the typical tuscan rolling hills to the Brunello wine region and Bolsena lake. The visit of the city center of Rome will make unforgettable this amazing bike experience.
